VO-AG Teachers To Study Electricity

Teachers of vocational agriculture in five nearby counties will participate in a conference on teaching electricity in the Buckingham Central High School Monday and Tuesday, November 9-10.

The conference is one in a series arranged by the Agricultural Education Service of the State Department of Education. R. A. Wall, Teacher Trainer in Agricultural Education at VPI will serve as conference leader.

The sessions will get underway at 4 p.m. and continue until 9 p.m. each day. Counties included are Amherst, Appomattox, Buckingham, Charlotte and Cumberland. G. L. Baldwin instructor of vocational agriculture in the Buckingham Central High School is in charge of local arrangements.

Future Homemaker Of Month

MISS DEBBIE THOMAS

Miss Debbie Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thomas of Spout Spring, was selected as the outstanding member of the Appomatox Chapter Future Homemakers of America.

Debbie has attended the State F. H. A. Convention. She helped to plan and put up the F.H.A. Educational exhibit at the Five County Fair and Lynchburg Farm Show. The exhibit was first place winner in both events. She made several entries in the Fair and participated in the Farm Show at Lynchburg. She served at a tea and luncheon for the teachers during the preschool conference. Debbie attended the Officer's Workshop and also the Federation meeting at Brookville. She is now serving as President of the Appomattox F.H.A. Chapter.

Pupils Tested For Speech And Hearing Defects

All Appomattox county pupils in the second through seventh grades are being tested for speech and hearing defects by the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

For most of the youngsters the cards they carry home read "hearing normal — speech normal", and for those in whom defects have been noted, there will be a follow-up so that corrective steps may be taken. The program has the cooperation of school officials and is being carried out by Va. Society personnel and Mrs. Mildred O'Brien Alvis, visiting teachers.

Golden October

by Frank Flynn
Appomattox

Golden October the Crown of the year.
When Autumn leaves come dancing down,
Red, yellow, and brown

Good-by little birds,
We have been friends so long
Now we'll sing our farewell song

So over the brown meadows
They dance and fly
Red, yellow, and brown to finallight upon their dusty bed upon the ground.

To await the wintry, blustery winds
Dost blow to cover up their little golden heads with snow.
And when the long winter days have passed
And spring time has come at last
And nature is all aglow
To bring forth more leaves upon the bough of trees
Waving and dancing in the summer breeze.

O World, how beautiful
Thou are dressed.

Herbie Pulliam RPI "Rat King"

Herbie Pulliam, of Appomattox, freshman Interior Design student at Richmond Professional Institute, was chosen recently to reign along with Marian Holowell, of Portsmouth, as "Rat King and Queen" of a "Rat Dance" marking the end of a week of hazing by upperclassmen.

They were chosen Rat King and Queen from an eleven-member freshman Rat Court chosen by members of the junior Rat Court as best participants of Rat Week.

Said Herbie, about the week's long activities, "They really let me have it, but I paid them back for it on Friday." Herbie's many interests include horseback riding, tennis, and painting. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pulliam.

A child may score 20-20 on an eye chart test while in the second grade. But the next year, according to the Virginia Society for the Prevention of Blindness, he might need glasses, because children's eyesight varies from year to year, they should have annual eye examinations.

Antique Auto To Meet

The Lynchburg Antique Automobile Club will have a meeting at the Abney Inn on Bridge, Virginia Avenue, Lynchburg, on the next regular meeting night, Nov. 9th from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. We expect about 30 members from the Lynchburg area to be there. The public is invited to see the antique autos, but be any where else. The people of the Lynchburg area are invited to attend.

Attending the Annual Session of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs in Richmond today (Monday) were Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Raymond Lee Dinkard, Mrs. Jack Hurt, Jr., Mrs. Wade Whitehead, Mrs. S. R. Lacy, Jr., and Mrs. Raymond Lee.

Mrs. Crafford Lee and daughters, Misses Ann and Mary, have returned to their home in Lynchburg after visiting Mrs. Lee's mother, Mrs. Ann Wilson, in Appomattox.

Mrs. West is the former Miss Ann Wilson, Charles Wilson.

Dark Leaf Cigar

a straw mouthpiece, a small reed extending through the mouthpiece, and the entire length of the cigar and the tobacco around the reed and attached to the mouthpiece. The reed is pulled out of the cigar before smoking to provide a passageway for the smoke.

With nimble fingers, a lady takes the right amount of filler, fashions it around the reed and one end of the mouthpiece, rolls it in the binder, coats the wrapper with a sealer and deftly rolls the cigar in the wrapper. It is then slightly curved to give it distinctive shape.

After proper drying, it is packaged and aged to provide an hour of smoking pleasure to those citizens of Bavaria who enjoy a real, prestige cigar combining the best of Virginia dark-fired with the knowledge and skill of the manufacturer.

'65 FORD
TWIN I BEAM INDEPENDENT SUSPENSION

New easy ride . . . plus big-truck durability! Front wheels operate independently . . . forged I-beam axles . . . forged radius rods for lasting wheel alignment.
Only Ford Dealers have it!
Two front axles make this one the toughest, smoothest riding pickup ever! Here's why: each wheel works independently on its own axle—a forged steel I-beam axle like the big trucks use! Forged steel radius rods lock in wheel alignment! Two axles share the load, and because each axle works independently a bump at one wheel won't move the other. Add heavy-duty coil springs and you've got it . . . the smoothest riding, toughest independent front end in any pickup. Come on in and see for yourself how smooth a tough Twin-I-Beam Ford pickup really is.
